Lenti, Arthur J., SDB. Don Bosco, His Pope and His Bishop: The Trials of a Founder. 2006. One essay-study of the relationship between St. John Bosco and Pope Pius IX based on DB's letters to the Pope and others, 1858-1872, and two essay-studies of the controversies between Abp. Gastaldi of Turin and DB during the years in which the Saint sought the Holy See's approval of the Salesian Society. Carefully researched and meticulously documented, the book brings the period of the 1850s to 1880s alive, and presents a behind-the-scenes account of the most difficult period in DB's life. Originally published in the Journal of Salesian Studies. 252 pp pb (Rome: LAS) 88-213-0612-7 $25.00

Lenti, Arthur J., SDB. Don Bosco: History and Spirit. 7 volumes that describe and assess DB's life and work in historical, social, and ecclesiological context. Based on Fr. Lenti's courses at the Institute of Salesian Studies at Berkeley over a 20-year period, thoroughly revised by the author and edited by Fr. Aldo Giraud of the Salesian Pontifical University (Rome) and published by the university's press (LAS).

Vol. 2: Birth and Early Development of Don Bosco's Oratory. 2007. From DB's ordination to his firm establishment as the leader of the Turin oratories (1841-1852). xiv + 241 pp pb with bibliography, notes, map, charts, and illustrations. 88-213-0657-7 $35.00

Vol. 3: Don Bosco: Educator, Spiritual Master, Writer and Founder of the Salesian Society. 2008. DB from roughly 1849 to 1861 as educator and spiritual master in the community of the Oratory youth hospice, with the beginnings of what develops into the Preventive System; as founder of the Salesian Society; as writer and publisher in defense of the Catholic faith—all this set against a background of social change and political revolution. 340 pp pb with bibliographies, illustrations, and notes. 88-213-0671-6 $43.00

Vol. 4: Beginnings of the Salesian Society and Its Constitutions. 2008. In the political and ecclesiastical turmoil of 1861-1874 (Italian unification, Syllabus of Errors, Vatican I, Franco-Prussian War), DB continues the founding of the Salesian Society, going through a long, difficult effort to draft and win approval of the Constitutions. He contends with opponents in the Curia and with his own archbishops, especially his former ally Lawrence Gastaldi. 355 pp pb with bibliographies, illustrations, and notes. 88-213-0680-8 $48.00

Vol. 5: Institutional Expansion. 2009. Within the educational setting of Italy from 1848, and of the left-leaning governments from 1876, to DB's death, this volume treats of Salesian growth in the peninsula and expansion into France and Spain. The boarding school becomes the primary Salesian apostolic work. In the context of the Marian piety of the time, DB's devotion to the Immaculate and the Help of Christians is treated, including the founding of the Daughters of MHC. DB conceives of lay religious who are equal to clerical members: the Salesian coadjutor brothers, treated not just in DB's thought but up to mid-20th century. DB acts as an unofficial mediator between the Italian government and the Holy See to secure episcopal appointments. 382 pp pb bibliographies, illustrations, and notes. 88-213-0697-6 $52.00

Vol. 6: Expansion of the Salesian Work in the New World and Ecclesiological Confrontation at Home. 2009. Salesian work for immigrants and missionary activity in South America, placed in context; founding of the Salesian Cooperators, the Salesian Bulletin, and the Sons of Mary; ongoing conflict with Abp. Gastaldi and its forced settlement. 378 pp pb bibliographies, illustrations, and notes. 88-213-0725-6 $54.00

Vol. 7: Don Bosco's Golden Years. 2010. Internal organization of the Salesian Society from 1877, including 1st four general chapters; qualities of the candidates and spirit of the confreres; DB's writing and publishing activity in the 1870s and '80s; his physical decline and death; the canonization process; 3 comprehensive indices to the 7 volumes. 496 pp pb bibliographies, illustrations, and notes. 88-213-0746-1 $62.00
