

January 14, 2012 – Salesian GHQ - Greetings to Mother Reungoat, interpreter of the Salesian charism

(ANS – Rome) – On January 14 the Daughters of Mary Help of Christians celebrated the birthday of the Superior General, Mother Yvonne Reungoat (born at Finistère, France, 1945).

The Rector Major added his own greetings, in which he speaks about his admiration for her love for Don Bosco and her personal way of interpreting the Salesian charism:

My Dear Mother Yvonne,

I am very happy to contact you, even if it is through e-mail, but with no less affection and regard in order to send you my best wishes for a happy birthday.

I do so in my own name and also in that of the councilors. At Mass this morning I remembered you in a special way. Besides you, your dear ones, and all the sisters of the Institute of the Daughters of Mary Help of Christians, I offered a hymn of praise and thanks to the Lord for the gift of your life, joyfully and generously given to Him in the Institute at the service of the sisters and of the young throughout the world.

Be assured that I am close to you especially today, since I want to unite myself to your joy and that of the Institute as it celebrates with you and expresses its gratitude.

I have to tell you that you interpret Mother Mazzarello extremely well, both in her love for Don Bosco and in giving your own personal touch to her interpretation of the Salesian charism.

I pray that you may receive an abundance of the gifts of the Spirit so that you may always have the light to discern what the Lord wants from you and the strength to put His will into practice.

*My very best wishes and prayers.

On the FMA site there is now a forum for greetings to Mother.
